Formed in 2014, Auriel Camerata brings together some of the finest vocalists in the Capital Region and beyond. With advanced degrees from renowned institutions such as Eastman School of Music, Crane School of Music, and Yale University, and performance affiliations with the Boston Symphony, Tanglewood Festival Chorus, Glimmerglass Opera, Baltimore Opera, and Opera Saratoga, the singers of Auriel Camerata are among the most highly trained musicians in the Capital Region. Drawing on expertise and facility in genres ranging from Early Music to contemporary choral music, opera to simple folk tunes, an Auriel Camerata concert experience is a memorable event, infused with excellence, passion and artistry.

About Auriel Camerata: "We are professional musicians and music educators. We believe that music is a language that transcends geographical borders and, as such, is a universal expression of the human soul. We believe in the power of music to unite, to soothe, to stir the spirit, and to express the inexpressible. We're passionate about choral music, we believe in the adage 'the whole is greater than the sum of its parts', and we are absolutely convinced that music has the power to transform lives. We want to share our passion and commitment with you." - from aurielcamerata.org
